

EUROPE'S REFUGEE CRISIS: THE ROLE OF YOUTH

4TH – 12TH APRIL 2017

UNITED KINGDOM

An Introduction to the training...

This training course is about the refugee crisis in Europe.

Over the last four years the Middle East and Europe have been affected by wars, revolutions, armed conflict and tensions between societies and communities.

This course will take a holistic view of the current situation across Europe. It will equip participants with the practical tools needed to engage positively with the challenges back home and help make our societies beacons of hope, positivity and inspirational change.

The course will use non-formal learning methods and will take place in the beautiful surroundings of the ASHA Centre in the Forest of Dean, in the U.K. a centre of excellence in intercultural dialogue and international youth work.

Themes addressed will include:

- Understanding migration and asylum issues
- Being part of an interconnected and interdependent world
- Working with other people's perspectives
- Making human connections across social and cultural divides
- Discovering the richness of other countries, cultures and faiths
- Taking action to transform lives

Participant Profile

- Passion for the topic
- Good English speaking skills
- 18 or over

Reimbursement of Travel Costs

ASHA reimburses travel expenses at 80% of the overall cost (but no higher than the Erasmus+ travel distance band ceilings).
